Support, Coaching & Safety

Welcome, Rebel.

This community exists to support alcohol-free living, nervous-system regulation, boundaries, and personal growth through coaching, education, and connection.

It's important to be clear about what support I can offer — and when additional support is needed. This protects you, the community, and the integrity of this space.

How to Know What Kind of Support You Need Right Now

Use the short check-in form below if you're unsure whether:

- You're struggling but stable
- Coaching support would be helpful
- You need to reach out to a therapist or a crisis resource

There is no judgment in any of these options.

Coaching Support Is a Good Fit If You Are:

- Feeling overwhelmed but still safe
- Struggling with boundaries, cravings, routines, or regulation
- Looking for structure, tools, reflection, or accountability
- Able to pause, reflect, and apply guidance
- Not in immediate danger

 Coaching focuses on support, education, skill-building, and nervous-system regulation — not emergency care.

Please Reach Out to a Therapist / Mental Health Professional If You Are:

- Experiencing ongoing depression or anxiety that feels unmanageable
- Having intrusive or distressing thoughts
- Feeling emotionally unsafe most days
- Needing clinical mental health treatment
- Looking for diagnosis, therapy, or medication support

 Coaching can complement therapy — but does not replace it.

Please Use Crisis Support Immediately If You Are:

- Having thoughts of harming yourself or others
- Feeling unsafe or at risk right now
- Experiencing suicidal thoughts
- In a mental health emergency

This community is not a crisis line. If you are in immediate danger, please contact emergency services or a crisis hotline right away.
